

Notebook Assignment

Biblical Theology of the Land

Due 10/7

Look up these verses:

Matt 11:25, 28:18; John 1:1-3; Acts 4:24, 7:49, 14:15; Col 1:16-17; Heb 1:2-3

What is the relationship between God and our earth in our present time?

Look up these verses:

Matt 24:35; Luke 12:49; 2 Peter 3:12-13

In what way are the new heavens and earth to come?

Look up these verses:

Matt 5:5, Matt 19:28; Acts 3:20-21; Rom 8:22-25, Rev 21:1

How do you primarily see the new heavens and earth coming? Through annihilation of the old world, or a recreation of the old world?

What do you think is included in “the earth” of all these verses? How important is the earth to God? Are there things of the earth you wouldn’t have included as “spiritual” or worthy of God’s time?

Read Hebrews 4. The author is using a biblical theology of land to illustrate some important points about Jesus. In light of this chapter in Hebrews, how does a deep understanding of the land help our understanding of Jesus?
